CORREN TROEN - takes care of everything

If you are looking for a law firm that can take care of both your business and personal lives in the UK and Scandinavia, Corren Troen may be the answer. Corren Troen's 20 employees can assist with everything from drafting a Will and helping you navigate UK/DK tax, through to advising you on every legal issue that may affect your business.

Corren Troen was originally founded by Danish Advokat and Solicitor Per Troen and English Solicitor Paul Corren. In recent years, the firm has concentrated on helping Scandinavian and English families put in place succession plans for their family businesses and the ability to advise on both the private side and the corporate side has meant they are well placed to do so. However, the firm offers a lot more. We had a talk with Per Troen, who is also the Chairman of the Danish links with Denmark and Sweden and understand how the legislation between our countries interacts.

What kind of businesses or people are your main clients?

We provide advice to a number of English and Scandinavian families, as well as entrepreneurs. A number of our clients are not domiciled in the UK. On the corporate side we act for a number of owner-managed businesses as well as private equity providers. We also act for large institutional clients.

What makes you stand out compared to other law firms?

We aim to provide our clients with a complete legal package, taking care of their personal requirements, their family and their business. We have strong
